

Cosmic Laws

Divine Oneness - I will embrace

Everything we have or do is connected to the Universe, the Cosmos and Heaven. The lesson of this law is the more we embrace this truth – the happier we will be.

Important to know...as above – so below.

Vibration - I will be aware

Everything is about vibration and energy. The lesson of this law is to be aware of the energy fields that surround a situation or a person...then choose wisely.

Frequent frequencies.

Correspondence - I will activate

Everything is created by the subconscious patterns we repeat. The lesson of this law is to activate what is positively the best and healthiest for ourselves.

Protect thyself in order to select for thyself.

Attraction - I will align

Everything is about the law of attraction. The lesson of this law is to align ourselves with whatever and whoever we want that serves our highest good.

Seek the signs – then make the designs.

Inspired Action - I will have certainty

Everything can only bear fruit by what we put into action. The lesson of this law is to be certain about what we want and then go for it.

Actions speak louder than words and don't think that's absurd.

Transmutation - I will be conscious

Everything can be transmuted from negative to positive. The lesson of this law is to be conscious first of what is wrong.... in order to make it right.

We must give our sight to what is right, with all our might.

Cause and Effect - I will dismiss and distribute

Everything is based on what we put out, we will get back. It is known as the karma. The lesson of this law is to dismiss negativity and distribute positivity.

Whatever we create becomes our fate.

Compensation - I will invoke

Everything is based on what we reap, we will sow. The lesson of this law is that it invokes trust and patience, knowing we will be compensated for our good works.

Good deeds lay the best seeds.

Relativity - I will look

Everything is a spectrum of expression. The lesson of this law is that there is more than one perspective on any given situation or challenge – look deeper.

Seek to find the mystery within the history.

Polarity - I will see

Everything has a polar opposite. The lesson of this law is we see the light because of the dark and we know the dark because of the light.

Out of the ashes rises the phoenix – now that's a fix.

Rhythm and Motion - I will flow

Everything is forever changing. The lesson of this law is not to judge the incident. We must study the motion of the situation and go with the flow appropriately.

The one thing we cannot control is change, so stay within range.

Giving and Receiving - I will balance

Everything is about balance. The lesson of this law is we must love to give and we must love to receive equally. One without the other leaves us off kilter.

Accepting the yin and yang of life leaves us with no strife.
