

Leadership Quotes

When our highest self-esteem infuses – magically no one refuses.

One cannot properly hear – when one is in fear.

With great gratitude - one ensures a positive attitude.

We do not display ourselves by our words and talk - but by our deeds and walk.

Leadership is knowing how to share - our highest intelligence with no fan-fare.

Red flags were created for a very good reason - they are meant to prevent unwanted treason.

For those who do not forgive themselves will sadly become – an insecure faker.

Freedom and integrity can only be sustained - if only truth is maintained.

It is not how we fall or bounce - it is how we get back up that counts.

We embrace lessons to become stronger - so challenges don't last longer.

A good leader knows without exclusion – there is no room for confusion.

When we wait to be more precise - our decisions are more concise.

One does not kneel to darkness on a matter - even if our pockets don't get fatter.

When our generosity is constant and outrageous – it often becomes contagious.

Our feet must be planted on the ground - so our heads do not stay in the clouds and cannot be found.

Miracles do in fact exist – so please do not persist.

Our wondrous passion - is never out of fashion.

Always get the truthful facts - so honor and integrity to stay intact.
Our limited fearful thinking - can lead to our magnificent ship sink.
We start with our heart - not being led by our head.
Over analyzing – leads to paralyzing.
Never being afraid to look like a fool – is in truth, a golden rule.
Wanting to be popular – is the biggest mistake by far.
Sharing – is daring – to be caring.
Leading by example – is the ONLY sample.
Unnecessary, unwanted fear – must never be allowed near.
Commitment is needed – for anything to be succeeded.
Loving what we do – is not meant to be for the few.
In truth we are all born equal – not believing that is just a drama sequel.
Life is so great – when we live our purpose and fate.