

Caring for Kids

Stay centered and cool – avoiding looking like a fool.

Secrets are never good – they stem from the word “should”.

Do not get involved - if not committed to having the problem solved.

Never shame or blame – just name and tame.

Useless is excommunication - without proper communication.

Teach kids empathy – it is different from sympathy

When ready to try – it's wise to ask why.

Do not be oblivious – notice the obvious.

We are used as an example – therefore, use wisdom as the sample.

It's strategic to not wait – before or until it's too late.

No explanation- when in rage or frustration.

Sharing our feelings – most often, keeps problems from reeling.

To be or not to be – is not in the family tree.

Feel free to openly express – as it's not good to suppress.

Anger used properly - is great if not expressed sloppily.

Do not be fair weather – know when to use the sword and when to use the feather.

With challenges, words matter – like a cake needs batter.

Peace is always probable - because every problem is solvable.

When in doubt – please don't pout!

There are times it's good to stay quiet – in order to avoid a riot.

Don't be frenetic – just be magnetic.

Use intelligent emotions – to avoid commotion.

Don't tolerate – don't violate.

Truth be told, truth must be told – so don't be afraid to be bold.

When in an overwhelming task – get help and don't be afraid to ask.

Life today is not easy – just don't expect it to be breezy.

Kids hold in their souls the future – therefore, they need constant nurture.

Constantly come from the heart – it is sincerely the best start.

The ways of the world at present – are certainly not pleasant.

To the problem, don't be blind – for the solution, seek and find.

Often we need imagination – to find the right explanation.

At times, one needs to be willing – to use humor as the filling.

Never give up or give in – if you want goodness to win.
