

Spiritual Glossary

Introduction

Words, names, numbers and beings all have a meaning connected to them. Often people look to see the meaning connected to the name they want for their child before they declare it to be their namesake.

These esoteric, spiritual meanings have great significance. When we come to source these interpretations, this knowledge, when used carries a much greater power.

This glossary is a guide to endless inspirations. It is also a mental formula of mindfulness and connection to a higher force field. When we are aware of the true meaning of something, we are brought into a quickened spiritual vibration.

The human mind has spiritual energy flowing through thought and feeling currents. These streams offer vital information that are highly valuable and pertinent to our lives. They open the door to the development of our soul.

When awareness grows and strengthens, life becomes more liberated, fulfilled, peaceful and love-saturated. The following glossary of sacred terms and definitions are provided for careful reflection. Take what resonates with you and leave what does not. Hopefully, it will take you on a spiritual journey that can joyfully expand your horizon.

“Never censure what you do not understand and never overlook the reason for things”.
-Leonardo da Vinci

Glossary

Agape – love for all sentient beings.

Akashic Records – summary of all universal events.

Alpha and Omega – the beginning and the end.

Angel – a messenger that brings forth spiritual thoughts and faculties

Animals – souls that bring forth the best part of sentient beings.

Anointment – that which can fulfill and strengthen a new state of mind.

Ascended Masters – people who have served in many lifetimes and choose to stay close after they pass and help humanity.

Ascension – the means by which we rise up to a higher position.

Author of Our Being – that which keeps us on track to realize our destiny and fate.

Birds – souls that represent independence and elevation.

Bliss – a state of perfect harmony and happiness filled with grace.

Celestial – that which is ethereal or otherworldly.

Chakras – an energy alignment connected to the human body.

Cherub – an angelic order who are the keepers of the celestial records.

Chosen – a predestined agreement to take something on and be responsible for it.

Christed – being enlightened.

Christedness – divinity through truth, beauty and goodness.

Cloud – that which symbolizes the celestial realm and spiritual visibility.

Consciousness – a cognizance and knowing what is really existing.

Covenant – a contract between ourselves and a higher good.

Cows – souls which represent fertility, and new beginnings.

Disciples – those who have been illumined by truth and express it.

Divine – being delighted, ecstatic or in the providence of God.

Divinity – the state of Godliness.

Enlightenment – knowledge, happiness and freedom.

Error – thoughts that are not in harmony with our divine mind.

Esoteric – that which involves having an inner or secret meaning.

Eternity – timelessness where time has no application.

Evolution – a change in population characteristics over successive generations.

Feast – that which celebrates and manifests goodness and miracles.

Feather – a token of peace in the name of gentleness.

Feet – all we comprehend and under-stand.

Fire – a symbol of cleansing and purification.

Fish – the idea of multiplication.

Forty – a number which represents completeness.

Frequencies – the number of waves that pass through at any given time. We choose at every moment which frequency we will exist in.

Fundamental – a primary rule and rights of extreme importance.

Garments – the outer clothing of our minds and souls.

Golden – a high, exalted state of mind.

Heart Intelligence – the intelligence of compassion, empathy and love.

Heaven – a realm of pure ideals and thought forms.

Holy – complete devotion to goodness and righteousness.

Holy Grail – a belief that holds miraculous powers of infinite abundance.

Horses – souls that represent powerful, spiritual forces.

I AM – the spiritual self rather than the sensate self, thereby quickening our higher intelligence.

Infinity – duration without a beginning or an end.

Jelly Fish – the only species on this planet that can live for eternity.

Knowing – the highest part of our intelligence, intuition and spirituality.

Laws – rules meant for discipline and wisdom.

Light – illumination that makes things visible and stimulates knowledge.

Love – the substance of eternal life.

Mantra – sacred syllables for mental and spiritual expansion.

Matrix – something that originates, develops and takes form.

Meditation – an approach to divinity in word and thought.

Merkabah – a divine light vehicle which helps us reach our divine mind.

Microcosm – the smaller “I” part of the much larger “all” macrocosm.

Mindfulness – the ability to seam together morality and intelligence.

Mountain – a higher field of consciousness.

Oak Trees – spiritual strength, defense, and protection

Offerings – transmutation of the physical forces to a higher plane.

Olives or Olive Tree – a divine wisdom of peace.

Peace – the matrix understanding, openheartedness and kindness.

Prayer – a rapport with deities, God or an object of worship.

Prophet – and speaking about spiritual laws, ideas and plans.

Prosperity – inexhaustible support and supply.

Reincarnation – the rebirth of a soul into a new body.

Resonate – an awareness of energies and vibrations.

Resurrection – the powerful quickening of spirit, which raises one's mind and body.

Revelation – that which unveils the truth of something.

Reverence – a deep respect and sacred honor for someone or something.

Rich – the ability of dealing in the manifest world, with a spiritual understanding.

Ruler – leadership, whereby one rules through true merit.

Sacred – that which is dedicated and considered worthy of respect.

Sacred Language – multiple levels of knowledge.

Saint – one who goes above and beyond goodness.

Salvation – deliverance from bondage into the indwelling of love.

Sanctity – a quality through holiness or sacredness.

Scribe – thoughts written that touch our consciousness.

Sentient – that which is able to perceive or feel things.

Snakes – souls that represent a continual renewal of life.

Soul – the immaterial part of all beings which is immortal.

Source – a beginning of something that provides what is needed.

Spirit – the capacity to transcend concepts of the intellect.

Stars – inconceivable wonder and limitlessness.

Sword – a guarded instinct for anything and everything precious.

Tabernacle – a sacred place or sanctuary.

Talents – gifts that are used to manifest our fullest abilities.

Teacher – a bringer of knowledge and wisdom.

Temperance – harmonious adjustments for the laws of being.

Temple – the magnificence and splendor of spirit.

Time – a man-made outer division made into minutes, hours, days, weeks signifying a measure of events. However, spirit does not acknowledge time.

Transfiguration – a transformation of a physical embodiment into a body of Light.

Trees – the link between Heaven and Earth.

Trinity – a threefold understanding of mind, idea and expression.

Trumpets – energetic harmonics of thrills and waves

Twelve – a number for spiritual fulfillment.

Tunic – clothing, with little or no seam, representing unity.

United Force Field – the tying together of behavior, matter or energy.

Urim and Thummim – stones that render light and truth, used especially in difficult times and cases.

Vessels – the capacity to comprehend and measure our abilities.

Vibration – the vibrating environment on the human body and its spirit.

Vine – the life current that comes from the Universe.

Wanderer – an unfoldment and growth from the material to the spiritual.

Water – cleansing, mental potentiality, vital energy and spiritual consciousness.

Well – inspiration within our consciousness, infusing us with a sense of renewal.

Wisdom – great spiritual revelation.

Witness – the ability to measure the truth of something or someone.

Word – the expression of all the potential and creative power of humankind.

Worthy – the qualities that merit recognition.

Wrath – the emotion connected to laws and discipline, which can be a blessing.

Zero – the emptiness whereby all new things have a chance to begin.