

Truth Quotes

When appropriate - learn to say no in order to grow.

Believing we can control someone other than ourselves is but an illusion.

Truth is something we must seek to find – honest is something we must always be.

Denial is truth denied.

Without truth, nothing good can manifest.

The way we express ourselves is an example of the way we respect ourselves.

One of the simplest things in the world is the simple truth.

Truth is the most valuable of all treasures.

A half-truth is a whole lie.

Truth is not based on statistics.

Never swallow truth – just spit it out.

The biggest violation to mankind is the omission of truth.

Plant new truth as a way to root out old lies.

Illusions lead to wrongful conclusions.

Honesty comes from indwelling emotions; truth comes from outstanding knowledge.

Truth cannot be manipulated.

Truth not realized leads to an error of judgment.

A little white lie blackens trust.

If we want to feel whole, we must eliminate half-truths.

Our character is birthed from our passion for truth.

Our thought forms can be our greatest deceivers.

Always know the truth, but find the proper time to deliver it.

Being attached instigates deception.

Truth without proper delivery is but a judgment.

Do not be afraid to speak truth – be more afraid not to speak it.

Truth mixed with compassion creates an everlasting peace.

Though a truth may hurt for a moment – it will help for infinity.

No relationship can be sustained healthily without truth.

Though maybe not popular – we must be true to ourselves.

Truth be told – truth must be told!