

Positive Quotes

Working with a divided mind almost always gives results that are less than hoped for.

Be prepared to win – but if not – be brave in the attempt.

To know commitment is to know contentment.

Nothing is more rewarding than putting love into practical use.

Believe it or not – it is our nature to nurture.

If we do not say goodbye to our wounds, we do not welcome our wellness.

We cannot love another well, until we learn to love ourselves.

Conquering our anger with acceptance insures a victory of no after-sorrow.

Illuminating our imagination lights up the path to our heart's desires.

Anger, when utilized properly can be our greatest motivator and achiever.

We must never, never let another invade our sense of purpose.

To feel serene is the result of quelling our inferior emotions and mastering our superior mindfulness.

To lead well – we must live well.

To argue is to find a platform for our opinions – to be argumentative is to find a platform to override someone else's opinions.

Peaceful means is giving someone a piece of your mind, while staying peaceful.

One who embraces humbleness rarely experiences humiliation.

A great leader is one who is conscious, not contentious; kind, not cutting; concerned, not condemning.

Miracles are the vital force that attends transformation.

To have peace, we must eliminate actions that create war.

Betrayal to ourselves is the worst betrayal of all.

Truth is our soul's lifeline.

Positive Quotes

Love is not a theory, it must be lived.

To stay away from bitterness, we must make a commitment to our own sweet nature.

To feel inspired is our passion meeting our purpose.

There is an exquisite place within us that no challenge can destroy.

More often than not, just one pure interruption can stop a multitude of corruption.

Do not dismay over failure – it is the pathway paving the way to success.

One cannot go wrong when doing right.

People who achieve success dare to do what they know to be right in the face of all obstacles and adversity.

Dare to go forth without any logical explanation.

Be the difference that makes the difference.

Great ones have a history of using the insignificant to accomplish the impossible.

Treating ourselves and others with respect transcends the forces of dishonor.

Feel the enthusiasm of what could be and the acceptance of what might not be.

The person who waits for their ship to come in, has already missed the boat.

Change happens whether we are comfortable with it or not.

The way to a fulfilled life is to live each day as if it were the last.

Be realistic – plan a miracle.

Confusion defeats our empowerment.

People who have to control are those who feel the most out of control.

Purity comes from the surety of good things to come.

Dreams cannot be fulfilled without the courage of our convictions.